

BOLIVAR

Flavour profile: Full

Simon Bolívar was one of the great historic figures of the 19th Century who liberated much of South America from Spanish rule.

The Bolívar brand was created in 1902 and is based today at the Partagás factory in the heart of Havana.

It is perhaps not surprising that a Havana brand named after such a powerful figure is blended to match his might. Bolívar is among the strongest, most full bodied of all Havanas.

It boasts an unrivalled richness of flavour in its blend of Vuelta Abajo filler and binder tobaccos that makes it one of the most sought-after marques amongst experienced smokers.

It is the brand of choice for enthusiasts who like strong flavours.

All sizes of Bolívar are 'tripa larga, totalmente a mano' – long filler, totally handmade.

The Range

Belicoso Fino

A rich, deep earthy Belicoso that comes in Cabinet Selection bundles of 25 as well as standard labelled boxes. A great choice to follow a spicy meal.

Royal Corona

This star size of the 1990's returned in 2006 to top Cigar Aficionado's poll for best cigar of the year; the first Cuban ever to do so.

Corona J

A small cigar with a respectable 42 ring gauge that makes it an option even after a rich dinner if time to smoke is limited.

Petit Corona

Compare this Mareva with others and you will appreciate its richness of flavour. A powerful smoke and perhaps not for a beginner.

Tubos No.2

An honest Petit Corona in a tube with a memorably long finish.

Tubos No.3

A small, tasty cigar that sharpens the palate wherever you are. An essential tubed travelling companion.
