

RAMÓN ALLONES

Flavour profile: Full

Ramón Allones is one of the big names in the long history of Havanas. Founded in 1837, it is also one of the oldest brands still in production.

A Galician by birth Ramón Allones was the first cigar manufacturer to pack his cigars in boxes decorated with labels and stamped with his brand's emblem. He was the pioneer of the packaging tradition that we know today.

Hunters & Frankau owned the Ramón Allones factory in Havana and the worldwide rights between 1911 and 1927. Perhaps one of the reasons it has long been a much loved brand in the UK.

All the cigars are filled with a blend of filler and binder tobaccos from the Vuelta Abajo zone, characterised by their intense and complex taste.

The whole range is composed of 'tripa larga, totalmente a mano' – long filler, totally handmade cigars.

The Range

Small Club Corona

A substantial small cigar that delivers much more flavour and aroma than its diminutive dimensions might suggest.

Specially Selected

One of the great traditional Robustos favoured by seasoned smokers. Rich in taste, spicy in aroma. Also available in Cabinet Selection bundles of 50. One for those who know.

Gigante

An exceptional Double Corona with all the depth of flavour that Ramón Allones always promises. Its full potential is revealed steadily during the one and a half hours or more it takes to smoke.
